STUDENT SERVICES AND ACCOMMODATIONS

There are times when a student needs to talk to someone about a personal, academic, or social problem. Bryant offers a variety of programs, run by professional counselors and administrators, to help students confront the challenges they may face during their college years. Counseling and guidance – whether academic, personal, spiritual, or career – make an essential contribution to the educational experience at Bryant.

In the Student Services section, you will find information on:

- Academic advising
- Academic Center for Excellence (Writing Center, academic services for student-athletes, international students)
- Athletics and recreation on campus
- Campus ministry
- Career education (Amica Center for Career Education)
- Center for Diversity and Inclusion
- Class size
- Clubs and organizations for students
- Computers for students (mobile computing device program)
- Counseling services
- Cultural and recreational services nearby
- Disability services
- Employment on campus for students
- Faculty
- First-year students - keys to succeed
- Health services, health insurance, health report form
- Intercultural Center
- International dimension to education
- Pride Center
- Security - Public safety
- Women’s Center (Gertrude Meth Hochberg Women’s Center)

Housing, jobs, and health care facilities are also important to new students. Information about these campus services is provided to students through the Office of Residence Life, the Office of Admission, the Office of Financial Aid, the Amica Center for Career Education, and the Office of Health Services.