

POLITICS, LAW AND SOCIETY (PLS)

---

Courses

PLS 391. Politics, Law and Society Internship. 3 Credit Hours.

Supervised experiential engagement in the area of Politics, Law and Society, allowing students to connect Politics, Law and Society concepts with hands-on projects in professional settings. Students contribute at least ten hours per week at their placement site and check in regularly with a faculty supervisor. Open to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors with department chair approval.

Prerequisites: POLS 241, POLS 256, POLS 290, POLS 291, LGLS 230, SOAN 242, SOAN 243, SOAN 251, or SOAN 253 and junior standing or approval of a supervising faculty member and the department chair
Session Cycle: Every Semester.