

FILM STUDIES MINOR

Students pursuing a minor in Film Studies explore all facets of film and film making. They will analyze and interpret film in its historical, cultural, aesthetic and theoretical contexts. Students will also have the opportunity to produce films in Bryant's facilities.

Film Studies Minor Requirements

Required Courses

COM 243	Digital Media Production	3
LCS/COM 230	Introduction to Film Studies	3

Electives

Select two of the following:

COM 343	Narrative Filmmaking	3
COM 345	Documentary Filmmaking	3
COM 443	Script to Screen	3
COM/LCS 450	Film Genre Studies ¹	3
LCS 354	Animation Theory, History, Practice	3
LCS 441	Film Theory	3
ML CH451	Advanced Chinese Through Contemporary Chinese Cinema	3
ML SP309	Spanish and Latin American Film	3
ML SP407	Contemporary Female Writers and Filmmakers of the Spanish-Speaking World	3

¹ Students may take this course more than once because of its changing focus.

A minimum of 12 credits hours is required for the minor.